

Catherine Golding

Specialist Learning Support Teacher

catherine.golding@norfolk.gov.uk

My Job...

I visit schools talking to and working with children and young people to find out what they are good at and things they find difficult

I work with staff in school and parents, sharing information to help them support children and young people

I occasionally support the Autism Team

I am a member of the Critical Incident Team and sometimes support schools when a critical incident happens

What I might do in school...

Observe children in a group or class

Work 1:1 with a child to ask their views and explore their strengths and difficulties

Work with SENDCOs and other school staff

Talk to parents and carers

Provide training

My Areas of Interest...

Children and young people's learning in general
Autism and other learning difficulties
Supporting all children and young people in school

What is important to me....

My family and friends
My job and the people I work with Listening to and supporting children and young people

