My Job...

I started working with Norfolk's EPSS as a Specialist Learning Support Teacher in 2001.

My role involves:

- Delivering traded work as commissioned by schools
- Leading Core Consultation Meetings with schools
- Completing statutory work as commissioned by the Local Authority

I hold the Level 7 qualification – Assessing Learning for Specific Learning Difficulties (dyslexia)

I am a member of the Critical Incident Team.

What I might do in school...

Find out about pupils' learning needs by:

- Talking with children/young people
- Talking with parents/carers
- Talking with teachers

Work 1:1 with pupils to find out more about how they learn best

Provide information and training for staff

My Areas of Interest...

I am a Solution Focused Practitioner which means I love helping people work towards solving their problems.

What is important to me

Talking with people to find out:

- What they do well
- What they want to happen
- What is working
- What small changes could help
- How those changes might happen

My Background

- I started teaching in Hackney, London and moved to Norfolk in 1992
- I first became a SENCO in 1998
- I took a break from EPSS between 2015 & 2019 when I was the Lead Teacher in a Cognition & Learning Specialist Resource Base.
