

Gill Malcolm

Specialist Learning Support Teacher

gillian.malcolm@norfolk.gov.uk

STAY POSITIVE

My Job...

I have worked as a SENCo and a primary school teacher for 32 years before joining EPSS in January 2022.

My role involves:

- Visiting children and young people in schools
- Delivering Traded Work as commissioned by schools
- Leading Core Consultation Meetings with schools
- Completing Statutory Work as commissioned by the Local Authority.
- Signposting schools to useful resources and colleagues
- Being supportive

I hold a Level 7 Diploma in Specific Learning Difficulties

What I might do in school...

- Complete standardised and informal assessments with pupils and young people
- Observe pupils in the classroom and/or during social times
- Talk with, offer advice and training to support school staff
- Meet with parents of pupils with SEND
- Support schools to develop inclusive practice

My Areas of Interest...

- Supporting neurodiverse pupils with cognition and learning challenges
- Positive Behaviour approaches
- ADHD
- Autism
- Language development

KEEP LEARNING

What is important to me...

- Being an advocate for children and a good listener
- Making a positive difference
- Working collaboratively with my colleagues and the schools I support
- *Being kind

BE KIND

Hobbies

I enjoy walking my Border Collie, Yoga, watching films, learning Swedish, singing in a choir and CAKE!

Norfolk County Council

Educational Psychology & Specialist Support