

Hi

Kate McCaul

Specialist learning support teacher

Kate.mccaul@norfolk.gov.uk

My Job...

I have been working as a specialist teacher for EPSS since 2012

My role involves:

- Assessing and advising on the learning needs of children and young people
- Taking part on Core Consultations with SENDCos in schools across Norfolk

I hold the following qualifications:

- Level 5 – Teaching Learners with Specific Learning Difficulties (dyslexia)
- Level 7 – Assessing Learning for Specific Learning Difficulties (dyslexia)

What I might do in school...

- ❖ Talk to children / young people and their parents/carers
- ❖ Speak to teachers about pupils' learning needs
- ❖ Work 1:1 with pupils to find out more about how they learn best
- ❖ Provide information and training for staff

My Areas of Interest...

Dyslexia

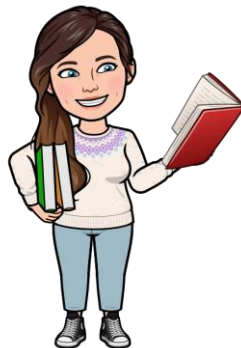

Using IT to support literacy difficulties

Learning difficulties and Self esteem

Maths difficulties

What is important to me...

Listening to pupils, parents/carers and schools and working together to find a way to best support the child/young person

Other interesting things:

Before working for EPSS I worked as a primary school teacher. I have also been a French teacher and a ukulele teacher.
