

Lisa Herron

Specialist Learning Support Teacher

lisa.herron@norfolk.gov.uk

My Job...

I joined EPSS in January 2024 as a Specialist Learning Support Teacher

My role involves:

- Delivering traded work as commissioned by schools
- Leading Core Consultation meetings with SENDCOs in schools
- Completing statutory work as commissioned by the Local Authority
- Assessing and exploring the learning needs of children
- Signposting and advising schools to support inclusion

I hold the following qualifications:

- National SENCO Award – NASENCO

What I might do in school...

- Talk with children / young people and their parent's / carers
- Speak with Teachers and class staff about learning needs
- Work 1:1 with pupils to explore their strengths and difficulties
- Observe pupils in class in at break time
- Provide information and strategies to support learning

My Areas of Interest...

- Speech, Language & Communication Difficulties
- Early Years
- ADHD
- Autism

What is important to me...

- Listening to and valuing children and young people's voice
- Working collaboratively with children, parents, and schools to explore, and work to overcome, barriers to learning

Other things about me:

- I have been teaching since 2007, and before joining EPSS I was a SENDCO for 8 years
- I am an Early Years Specialist
- I'm a resin artist and a keen sewist
- I enjoy birdwatching at the weekend

